Club supports the 'Living Room'

The Rotary Club of Stevenage Grange, in continuance of its commitment to raising money for good causes, was delighted to be able to present a cheque for £2,000 to the ;Living Room; appeal this week.

The Living Room, based at the Glebe, Stevenage, is provides support and advise to those in need of assistance who are recovering from various addictions, be it drugs, alcohol or emotional problems. It has rapidly become highly respected for its excellent work, under the guidance of the Centre Director, Janice Rogers.

The Living Room relies on charitable support, and has been adopted by the Grange Rotray Club, along with other needy and good causes. The money was raised by the Club at a charity auction night.
