

ROTARY CLUB OF STEVENAGE GRANGE

Press Release 14th July 2005

New President takes office

The new President of Rotary Club of Stevenage Grange is Bryan Cornish, who took office on 4th July from outgoing President David Stewart

Bryan, who held the office of Vice-President in the previous year, has lived in Stevenage for 30 years. He is married to Mary and has two daughters. He joined Rotary in 1994, was previously been a Round Tabler and Chairman of the Stevenage Carnival Committee.

Bryan said "I have enjoyed the opportunities that being in a service club provides. Not only a diversion from work, but getting involved with serving the community both locally and internationally either by fund raising, on hands-on projects, is most satisfying.

Rotary International, with 29,000 clubs in 162 countries has a membership of 1.2 million people. As an organisation of business and professional people, we welcome those that are resolute in advancing humanitarianism and wishing to serve their community (while having fun doing it). Rotary Club of Stevenage Grange meet one a week at the Corus Hotel, Stevenage. You can find out more about the club by visiting its web site www.sgrc.org.uk
